

Stem Cell Fluxx Discussion Questions

Goal: Present student with these questions after the lesson on stem cells and after the Fluxx game has been played. The questions are meant to promote a continued interest and thought on the topic of stem cells. Students are start a class discussion encouraged to think critically and apply their new knowledge of stem cells. These questions can be used to or be used as a homework assignment. Feel free to come up with your own discussion questions/ topics as well. The questions are in no particular order.

Questions

1. What are some diseases that stem cells could help cure?
2. Where do stem cells come from?
3. How can doctors use stem cells to help patients?
4. What are some of the challenges that stem cell researchers face?
5. How long do you think it will take before stem cells are used clinically?
6. What are the benefits of using stem cells to treat diseases?
7. Are there any drawback of using stem cells as medicine?
8. Do you think it is ethical to use stem cells?
9. How is the game similar to using stem cells in real life?
10. Would you be interested in working with stem cells when you are older, why or why not?
11. What is the most confusing part about stem cells to you?
12. Had you heard about stem cells before this lesson?